

Commonwealth of Kentucky
Kentucky Department of Corrections

For Immediate Release

Contact: Mike Caudill
502-782-2345 (office)
502-229-5638 (cell)

Patricia Heuer Promoted to Assistant Supervisor in Probation and Parole District 7

FRANKFORT, Ky. (March 22, 2016) – Kentucky Department of Corrections Director of Probation & Parole Roberto Rodriguez today announced the promotion of Patricia Heuer to assistant district supervisor of District 7. District 7 encompasses Boone, Campbell, and Kenton counties.

“Patricia Heuer is a dedicated officer who is consistently involved in making her district and the Division of Probation and Parole better,” said Rodriguez. “I am pleased to promote her to this position and appreciate her for being such a dedicated employee.”

Heuer began her career with the Department of Corrections in March 2005 as a probation and parole officer in District 7. During her years of service she has maintained a variety of caseloads that included a specialized sex offender caseload. She also wrote pre-sentence investigation reports and was the Class D officer for the district. In 2013 and 2014, Heuer served as an adjunct in-service trainer and is certified to facilitate the cognitive behavioral program “Thinking for a Change.”

Heuer is a 2004 graduate of Northern Kentucky University where she earned a bachelor’s degree in criminal justice with a concentration in political science. In 2014 she received her master’s degree from the University of Cincinnati in criminal justice with a concentration in corrections and offender rehabilitation.

Heuer is a graduate of the 2014 Commissioner’s Executive Leadership Program. She was also named the 2013 Employee of the Year for District 7.

Editor’s note: photo attached

###